

PROMO ON DEVELOPING OR REVISINF NONPROFIT BYLAWS

Bylaws are a legal document outlining the self-imposed rules that will regulate an organization's own actions.

Since it is a required element when forming a corporation, bylaws are a form of agreement or contract between the corporation and its owners to conduct itself in a certain manner. In the past, organizations often had bylaws but today those bylaws are usually insufficient.

This seminar will offer participants the knowledge concerning...

- 10 Most Common Nonprofit Bylaw Pitfalls: How to Avoid the Traps.
- Required provisions normally included in Nonprofit Bylaws

Keep in mind that when starting a Nonprofit business, the organization does not formally exist until the bylaws have been approved by the governing body of the organization.